For each visitor to our website, our web server automatically recognises information regarding the domain or e-mail address. We collect aggregate information on what pages consumers access or visit, user-specific information on what pages are accessed or visited, information volunteered by the consumer, such as survey information and/or site registrations.

The information we collect is used for internal review, to improve the content of our site, to notify consumers about updates to our website, and is never shared with other organisations.

We may use a technology called “cookies” to track patterns of behaviour of visitors to our site. A cookie is an element of data that our website sends to your browser which is then stored on your system. You can set your browser to prevent this happening. Any information collected in this way can be used to identify you unless you change your browser settings.

If you do not want to receive e-mail from us in the future, please let us know by sending us an e-mail to web@wi-ltd.net.

We do not partner with or have special relationships with any ad server companies.

Upon request we provide site visitors with access to contact information (e.g. name, address, phone number) that we maintain about them. Consumers can access this information by writing to us at our postal address. Upon request we offer visitors the ability to have inaccuracies corrected in contact information. Consumers can have this information corrected by sending e-mail to us at web@wi-ltd.net.

We have appropriate security measures in place in our physical facilities to protect against the loss, misuse or alteration of information that we have collected from you at our site.

If you feel that this site is not following its stated information policy, you may write to us at Unit D2, Churcham Business Park, Churcham, Gloucestershire, GL2 8AX, UK, call us on +44 (0)1452 751940, or email us at web@wi-ltd.net.
